LAW BANQUET WILL BE HELD THIS EVENING

St. Lawrence Hall To Be Scene of Festivity.

MANY GUESTS.

Excellent Musical Program
Has Been Arranged.

This evening at 7.30 in the St. Lawrence Hall will be held the first banquet of the Law Faculty since 1915. This event was always an annual affair but owing to the war no banquet has been held for the last four years. The committee in charge has spared neither trouble nor expense to make this event an unqualified success. Arrangements have been made with the management of the St. Lawrence Hall to cater for one hundred and fifty guests and an excellent spread is promised.

Senator Foster, the Batonnell of the Bar of the Province of Quebec has very kindly accepted the invitation of the Committee to act as the guest of honor. Among the other guests who have been invited are: The Acting Principal, Dr. Frank Adams, R. W. Lee, Dean of the Law Faculty, Judges Greenshields, Howard, Surveyor and Lafontaine, the Dean of the Faculty of Law of the University of Montreal, Judge McNeault, and Messrs. Chipman, Rowat, McGoun, Beullac, Lafleur, Smith, members of the Professoriate of the Faculty, Mr. Caron, President of the Law Faculty of Laval University, Quebec, Mr. Lafleur, President of the Law Faculty of the University of Montreal.

Representatives from the Canadian and American Universities have been invited and will in all probability be present.

The Committee have also decided to have certain entertainments at the dinner. The famous "Willie" Eckstein has promised to be on hand assisted by his almost equally well-known partner "Slicks" Ormond. "Prevost's Jazz Band," whose fame

VARSLITY ONCE MORE BEATEN IN THE WATER

Red and White On Long End
Of a 7-1 Score.

SECOND VICTORY.

Great Hospitality Shown To Team.

McGill almost duplicated her previous performance at water-polo when she defeated Toronto by the score of 7 to 1. The week before a 7-0 victory had been scored. Of McGill's seven goals, Fisk scored five and Parsons two. Fitzgerald, for Varsity, played a brilliant game, and was the pick of the Blue and White line-up.

A crowd of about six hundred and fifty witnessed the game, which was very clean and fast. Toronto was found to have improved wonderfully since their whitewash down here. Good combination was exhibited on both sides, making the game interesting to the spectators.

Winters and Bastable worked very hard for McGill, and kept feeding Parsons and Fisk, who were close in on the Varsity goal, with the ball. It was due to the splendid defensive play of Elder and Wiggs that Toronto made such a small score, their only goal being tallied while Fisk and Winters were laid off in the second quarter owing to slight, temporary injuries. During this period they pressed hard, and scored from a mix-up in front of the nets. Walters played his usual steady game in goals, and handled many difficult shots in masterly style. Laidley, McGill's lightest man, very ably substituted, more than holding his own against the heavier Varsity line. All the men were in good condition, and kept on the offensive for the whole game. As there is no shallow end to the Hart House tank, no rest was afforded to the players. But the whole team stood it well, especially "Leo" Parsons, who remained in the water during the entire game.

Besides exhibiting good sportsmanship, Toronto proved to be excellent hosts. A banquet and a theatre party

INTERCOLLEGIATE PLAY- OFF.

In view of the fact that U. of T. defeated Queens in hockey and basketball at Kingston last week-end, Varsity has come up on even terms with McGill, so that a play-off is necessary to decide the Intercollegiate championship in these two sports. A meeting was held at Kingston Saturday in regard to this, but nothing definite has as yet been arranged. Both the hockey and the basketball play-offs will be staged on neutral ground. It is probable that the games will be played at Ottawa on Friday or Saturday of this week but full particulars of the exact time and location will be published in to-morrow's "Daily."

R.V.C. SENIORS HOCKEY TEAM WINS RETURN

St. Lambert's Vanquished 3-1
Last Saturday.

BETTER FORM SHOWN.

On Saturday afternoon the R.V.C. Senior Hockey team again defeated St. Lambert by a score of 3-1. This time the game was played at St. Lambert and the R.V.C. team showed up to much better advantage on the rink which is larger than their own. In the first period the college team had the better part of the play. Miss Doris Campbell made some excellent rushes, but her shots were stopped effectively by Miss E. Watson, who played goal for St. Lambert. Miss V. Foley scored two goals for the R.V.C. in quick succession.

In the second period the St. Lambert girls showed better form. After an unsuccessful rush, however, Miss V. Foley tried again, and succeeded in scoring the third goal for R.V.C. During the remainder of the period, the play was evenly divided. At the end of the second period the score was St. Lambert 0, R.V.C. 3.

After five minutes play in the third period Miss Florence Leggat scored for St. Lambert. Shortly after the play was resumed the puck disappeared. This was rather awkward for the players but Miss Mary Fry soon discovered the missing puck in her pocket, and the game went on. There was no further score, however, and the R.V.C. team left the ice victorious, having won by a score of 3 to 1.

The game was an excellent one and proved very interesting to the spectators. The R.V.C. team has improved greatly due to the instruction of Mr. R. Kennedy. Miss Violet Foley and Miss Doris Campbell starred on the college team.

Mr. Cook, of St. Lambert, acted as referee. The line-up was as follows:

MED. '22 SUCCEED IN SCORING WIN

The game was played on a fast sheet of ice and was closely contested throughout, though Med. '22 was superior. Stenson in goal for '22 was perhaps the chief factor in deciding the match.

INTERMEDIATE TEAM SCORES EASY VICTORY

St. Gabriel's Defeated 15-0
Last Saturday.

WON CHAMPIONSHIP.

Game Practically a Run-Away From Start.

Without exerting themselves, the Intermediate team defeated the St. Gabriel's in the championship match of the Intermediate League, on Saturday afternoon. The Red and Whites scored 15 goals, while the St. Gabriels failed to score. It looked from the beginning like a runaway match. There were about one thousand spectators, many of whom were supporters of the St. Gabriel team.

Lynn scored more goals than anyone else on his team. The Red and White men took things easy after the first period, not expending more energy than was necessary. Gallery did not play at all, while the substitutes replaced the regulars. Brown played a fair game in goal, while Timmins was seldom called upon to stop a shot.

In the first period, Davis scored for McGill two minutes after the start. The St. Gabriels tried again and again to reach the Red and White nets, but each time their efforts were foiled. This period ended with the score of 6 to 0 in McGill's favor.

The second period dragged and was far from being exciting. Vauthier and Shipton made several good rushes, but they could never succeed in finding the nets.

In the same period, Davis and Kelly scored in quick succession, thus bringing the total up to 8 to 0 for McGill. During the third period, the Red and White team made seven more goals, thus bringing the score up to 15, while the St. Gabriels failed to score once.

The McGill men played a very clean game throughout, but the St. Gabriels were a little rougher, Carter being warned twice in the last period.

TOMORROW'S TRAMP WILL BE SUCCESS

Under Auspices of Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.

CROWD EXPECTED.

Preparations Now Practically Completed.

Preparations are now practically completed for the snowshoe tramp which is being given by the McGill Snowshoe Club, under the auspices of the Y.M. and Y.W., on Tuesday, March 2nd at 8.15.

This event will, no doubt, be one of the biggest successes of the season, and it is more than probable that Strathcona Hall will be taxed to the limit.

A great deal of enthusiasm is being displayed over this tramp, and since it will be one of the last events of the kind this season, a record turnout is expected.

In the case of any students who do not possess snowshoes, or who are unfortunate enough not to have brought their snowshoes to Montreal with them, we wish to remind them that those articles can be rented very reasonably from Smyth's, on University Street.

All who attended the last tramp will vouch for the success of these events, and will tell you that if you don't go you are missing something well worth while.

The route will probably be the same as that taken last time. With all the snow there is at present, the tramp is sure to present many amusing incidents.

There will be lots of partners for those who come unescorted, and at the same time we wish to point out that the boys may bring any young ladies they wish.

The party will meet at Strathcona Hall at 8.15 p.m., and will proceed from there at 8.30 sharp. About 10 p.m. all will return to the Hall for refreshments, during which there will be music.

This is going to prove itself to be THE big outdoor social event of the year, so don't miss it. Everybody out. The place, Strathcona Hall; the time, 8.15 p.m.; the girl—

MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1920.

SPRING, GENTLE SPRING

And now, strictly speaking, enters Spring, beloved of modistes and minor versifiers. Young men's fancies, it is to be presumed, are lightly turning in the usual direction and the voice of the turtle is again to be with us. Unfortunately in this latitude Spring and rose-in-hand are not as compatible as in far-off Persia but the other day a friend of ours confessed that she smelled heliotrope. Perhaps that may suffice.

Spring to the average housewife means a trying season of painful days and almost equally painful nights, a time of new paint, fresh wall-paper and old cobwebs of varnish and curtain-stretchers and carpets on the line. To the average husband it is a period of camping-out, of cold meals or no meals, forbidden rooms, "duck-boards" across freshly-furnished spots, necessary carpentry and more or less necessary profanity. To the city dweller it is the end either of coal-bills or of hostilities with the janitor, to the farmer it is the end of comparative inaction. To youth it is another opportunity for freedom, to age another respite. What is it to you?

At this time of the year you are either beginning to wonder mildly about work or about easing up. If you have worked wisely and well you will be able now to enter on the "home stretch" without misgivings and without being confronted by the necessity of increasing your efforts if you are to obtain the essential minimum. If, on the other hand, you have conserved your energies not wisely but too well with regard to Path, or Math, or what not this new season indeed may usher in a period of necessary and feverish exertion. If you are in the former class you are to be congratulated not only on your good judgment but on your good fortune. If in the latter we can only hope that the case is one of laziness rather than of faulty judgment for with laziness is often coupled the ability to secure what in this instance might be called passable results in a surprisingly short time. No one should condone slipshod work but this world usually sees only success or failure. The substance of the thing is probably gone beyond recalling by now but it is reasonably certain that the shadow is still obtainable. If your aim is only to pass examinations this is preeminently your season of the year. Taking time by its now rather scanty forelock you may still come out on the popular side of forty. It is your time to "buck up."

SHOW MORE INTEREST

On several occasions during the past few weeks we have laid particular emphasis on the facts that nominations for certain offices on the Students' Council must be handed in to-day, and that it is the duty of all the undergraduates at the University to take particular interest both in the nominations and the elections to follow.

All this seems to have had little effect. We have heard of only a few nomination sheets being circulated and as yet no two men have been nominated for one office. We are loath to believe that all the elections this year are to be by acclamation and we hope that enough interest will be taken to warrant a ballot.

Great is the importance attached to the approaching elections. The year to come will without doubt be as momentous as that now drawing to a close. A capable, an energetic and a trustworthy executive must be chosen to control the student affairs, and this cannot be done without due interest and consideration. The year 1921 is the centenary of the foundation of the University and we believe that many functions and activities in connection with it will demand the best ability at McGill.

The list of vacant offices on the Student's Council appears elsewhere. These may be filled by undergraduates from any Faculty who are elected by a ballot of the entire student body. That the two or three thousand students at McGill can pick from their number but one man capable of holding each office seems odd, and to our mind shows a decided lack of college spirit. At the meeting last Saturday the Students' Council expressed a view unfavorable to elections by acclamation and the men who are now nominated for office would also like some competition and an election. Nominations must be handed in by five o'clock this evening. Plenty of time remains to get the necessary twenty-five names attached to the list and to have your man duly put up for office.

War Record Of W. E. G. Murray, Arts '12 — Brig.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, C.M.G., D.S.O., Sci. '10, Has Received Important Appointment — Death of W. A. Duff, M.Sc., Sci. '94 — Orrin Vincent, M.A., Arts '07, Passes Away — Marriage of Dr. G. E. Gillies, Med. '06.

W. F. G. Murray, Arts '12, founder of "McGill Daily," and Rhodes Scholar in 1919, emerged from the Great War with just such a record as might have been expected of him. Enlisting in the King Edward's Horse at the commencement of the war, he transferred to the Royal Flying Corps, wherein he had a brilliant career and many noteworthy escapes from disaster. His decorations are the following: Military Cross, Distinguished Flying Cross, the Croix de Guerre, the Order of the Crown of Italy and the Italian Silver Medal for Military Valor. When not writing editorials for the "Daily," leading the Opposition in the Mock Parliament, or composing these, William Edward Gladstone was scribbling for Montreal newspapers. His story on the escape of the monkey from the Old Medical Building, and its subsequent adventures, written when picking up some easy on the evening sheets, and when "Bills" pocketbook was lean, will forever remain a classic.

On February 15, a son was born at Halleybury, Ont., to Horace F. Strong, Sci. '10, and Mrs. Strong.

A son was born at Montreal, on February 23, to the wife of Henri Gerin-Lajoie, Law '12.

Rev. D. M. MacLeod, Arts '07, has been called to Moose-Creek, Ont., after a successful pastorate of eight years at Lyn, Ont.

At Brattleboro, Vt., on February 13, a son, Francis Riley, was born to Dr. W. J. Kaine, Med. '11, and Mrs. Kaine. The marriage took place recently in Vancouver, B.C., of Miss Edith Agnes Blair, of that city, and Dr. George Ernest Gillies, Med. '06, son of the late Dr. John Gillies, of Teeswater, Ont.

Word has been received at the University of the marriage, in January, at Holy Trinity Church, Brompton, London, Eng., of Major Eric Greydon, M.C., Sci. '13, of the Royal Air Force, and Miss Mary Fyers.

Brigadier-General A. G. L. McNaughton, C.M.G., D.S.O., Sci. '10, has been appointed Director of Military Training and Staff Duties at Military Headquarters in Ottawa.

Education in the Province of Quebec lost a leading figure on February 23, when Irving Orrin Vincent, M.A., Arts '07, principal of Edward VII School, Montreal, passed away at his home, 301 Hampton Ave., Notre-Dame de Grace, after a fortnight's illness of pneumonia. Mr. Vincent was born at St. Armand, Que., 35 years ago, and was educated at the Frehligsborg Model School, at Stanstead Academy and at McGill. From 1907 to 1912 he taught in the Eastern Townships, first at Sherbrooke and later at Cookshire, and in the latter year was appointed principal of the Edward VII School in Montreal, then just completed. As such, he had charge of the instruction of 1,500 pupils, and thousands of others had passed under his care. A keen advocate of compulsory education in Quebec, he had studied and written on the subject largely, and was also considered an authority on truancy. He was chairman of the committee which drew up a report to the Council of Public Instruction in favor of compulsory education, and was a member of the executive of the Provincial Protestant Teachers' Association. He was a member of St. James Methodist Church. His wife, formerly Miss Theodora Wallace Brown, Arts '08, survives with an infant daughter.

Dr. M. N. Fineberg, Dent. '15, has just returned to Montreal after an absence of about a year in the United States, where he was doing specialization work in various dental colleges and clinics. He was the pyorrhea surgeon to the Department of Dentistry in the Mount Sinai Hospital, in New York City, right up to the time of his departure for Montreal, a few days ago. Dr. Fineberg has now re-opened his offices at 428, Mackay Street, where he will practice pyorrhea surgery and dental X-ray work exclusively.

BRILLIANT CAST IN SENIOR PLAY

J. Lewis O'Brien Is the Aspiring Matinee Idol.

For almost three weeks now, members of the classes of R.V.C. '20 and Arts '20 have been working hard getting ready to produce the Senior Play. Friday and Saturday, March 12th and 13th have been the dates chosen for the presentation of the play. The executive has been unsparing in its efforts and everything is now ready, except for the members of the cast to put the final polish on their acting. A splendid play has been chosen. It is a comedy which is full of subtle humor and one which will provide the audience with many laughs as well as hold their attention to the end of the last act.

For several years now the senior classes of the R.V.C. and Arts have staged a play which each year was a great success. In 1913, the play chosen was "The Cabinet Minister," this was followed in the years following by "The Manoeuvres of Jones," in 1914, "Green Stockings," in 1915, and the last play to be given was in 1916 when "Trelawney of the Wells" was presented with great success. The war stopped the activities of the senior years and the play will be revived this year again when "The Weaker Sex," a play in which many famous actors and actresses have starred, will be presented. The scene of the play is in London and the time is the present day.

The senior classes have been very fortunate in discovering among their numbers several members possessed of real talent. In fact, the cast contains some very clever actresses and actors who, for amateur, are going to produce quite a sensation by the interpretation of the characters which they are playing. Great care has been taken in the selection of the people for the different parts and three or four experiments were made with some of the characters, but now every part is filled to the satisfaction of everybody.

Dr. McMillan has been a capable advisor and coach since the rehearsals have begun. Miss Carr has also assisted, especially as a critic. Some of the features of the play will be beautiful costumes, particularly on the women characters, and exquisite scenic effects.

Miss H. R. H. Nichol is playing the part of Lady Vivahy, and plays a difficult role in an able manner. Miss Jean Nichol, in the part of the masculine Mrs. Boyle-Chewton, and Miss M. McNaughton, as Rhoda, her daughter, are also very effective. Miss Sally Cameron will hold the audience, at least, in the role of Sylvia, the attractive daughter of Lady Vivahy, who captures the heart of the poet and causes the complications around which the plot is woven. Miss Mary Grace Holland Moody has a difficult, if not a very heavy role, in the part of Mrs. Howley Hall. The part of Lady Gillingham will be played by Miss Brenda McDonald, Lady Liptrott by Miss Alice Wilson, and Petch by Miss E. Henry.

Among the actors is C. W. Townshend, who feels quite at home in the role of the idle loafer, Dudley Stitches. The part of Clarence Bergus, the verbose but rather unfortunate suitor, will most certainly be ably acted by J. N. Petersen. Ira Lee will be played by J. L. O'Brien in a manner that will leave no doubt in the minds of the audience as to the reason for calling him "The Poet of the Prairie." Don Taylor demonstrates his histrionic as well as his acrobatic ability in the part of Wade Green. E. C. Martin acts the role of Spencer, the butler, with surprising ability. The Hon. George Liptrott is played by W. M. Murray with considerable effectiveness as he has made a careful study of all the characters in the play and shows no hesitation when called upon to do his part. J. A. Latham acts the part of the deaf and stupid Lord Gillingham in a very able manner. Hawley Hill is the part given to E. A. Center and he has attained a very great degree of proficiency as a result of his constant attendance at the rehearsals.

The tickets for the play will be placed on sale within a day or two and will be given to the first comers. A large amount of tickets have been applied for by graduates and it is expected that there will be no seats left for students on the "graduates" night.

SCISSORED SENTIMENTS

A movie star is now attending the University of Missouri. Miss Josephine Headly, formerly a Thomas H. Ince star, is enrolled in the short course in Agriculture. Miss Headly was in the movies for two years and starred with William S. Hart, Charles Ray, Bessie Barriscale and other screen celebrities. She is studying farm problems in order to take charge of a 2,000 acre ranch in Arkansas, which, since the death of her father, is without a manager.

Attention at the University of Oklahoma now centres on a beauty contest being conducted by the managers of the year book.

Columbia University had reached an enrollment of 36,000, and President Butler has pointed out that 100,000 is a figure which should be reached sometime in the future.

Two girls at the Ohio State University signed their names to contracts to join the movies recently. After they had signed they found that the "Agents" were not motion picture solicitors but college students. The girls had been inveigled into signing a bogus contract.

Two new buildings are being planned for Ohio State University. The first is to be a Women's Gymnasium, with large and small "gym" floors, a swimming pool, and shower and locker rooms.

Among the new languages to be taught will be Dutch, Japanese, Arabic, Armenian, Chinese, Norwegian, Hungarian, Icelandic, Irish, Portuguese, Rumanian, Russian, Serbo-Croatian and Persian.

STUDENTS RUSH FOR TICKETS FOR FRI.

Graduate students of the University of Texas will begin to wear the red ties, insignia of their department, with the beginning of the spring term.

A popularity contest was held by the University of Texas, to find out who was the most popular co-ed.

The Daily Iowan asks "What has become of the old-fashioned students who went to college for an education?" About 2,000 are going to McGill.

An American college weekly with all seriousness remarked "Most of the splinters in the banister of life are unnoticed until we begin to fall down."

Tickets Are Expected To Go In Record Time To-Day.

To-day, at 1.00 p.m., the tickets for the last informal dance of the season go on sale at the Union. This affair, which will take place on Friday night, promises to be one of the most successful of the season. Already numerous enquiries have been made, and the committee feel sure that there will be a record attendance.

Elaborate arrangements are being made for the occasion. The room will be tastefully decorated with colored lights, and a moon has been installed so that a number of waltzes of the moonlight variety may be held. The sitting-out places, which have in the past been more or less neglected, will be rearranged, and the light toned down by the use of shaded lights.

The music and catering will be up to the usual high standard, and the price per couple will remain as usual, $2.00.

ADDRESS BY PROF. HICKSON AT MEDICAL SOCIETY TO-NIGHT.

This evening the Medical Undergraduates Society will have the pleasure of honoring an address by Prof. Hickson, of the chair of Logic in the Arts Faculty. This is probably the first time that the society has heard Prof. Hickson and consequently a good attendance is expected.

The subject of Prof. Hickson's paper will be "Freudianism and Scientific Method," or "Freudianism and Psychology." Certainly the subject is one which merits the attention and thought of medical students in as much as the psychological element in the course is woefully neglected. This will be a new point of view for practitioners doubtless and the efficacy of the method should await our consideration.

As usual the meeting will convene in the Assembly Hall at 8.15, where the business will be effected. In the absence of Mr. MacDougall, the president, who is unfortunately ill, Mr. Duffy, the vice-president, will hold the chair. The address itself will probably be given in Lecture Room A. All those outside of the Medical Faculty who are interested are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments as usual will be served.

BIBLE STUDY SUPPER AND CLASSES.

Don't fail to attend the bean supper to-night and the classes ensuing. Serious thought is at a premium in the University. Let it not be so here. Those men who have had the backbone to stick by the courses know that the effort has been fruitful.

There will be a wrestling and boxing practice at 5.15 to-day in the large hall of the Union. All men are asked to be up sharp on time.

ORGANIZATION OF NEW CLUB AT MACDONALD

Known As "Macdonald College Canadian Club."

WELL ORGANIZED.

The Underlying Motive Is the Broadening of Perspective.

A new organization recently came into existence at our college, under the name of the Macdonald College Canadian Club. Its origin is due primarily to P. H. Ashby, Agr. '22, who, on February 1st, invited to conference a dozen men of the various classes whom he thought would be interested in the formation of some society for the purpose of fulfilling an apparent need in our college life. His ideas in the main were unanimously adopted by these men, and the initial steps in the organization of the Macdonald College Canadian Club were proceeded with. Thus far, the business of drawing up a suitable constitution and by-laws has occupied most attention at the meetings, although on February 17th the club was honored by having Prof. Barton present an extremely interesting paper on "The Farmer Factor in Politics."

The aims and objects of the club, as laid down in Article II of the constitution, are as follows:

"To discuss and study any subject of general interest which in any way affects or has a bearing on the British Empire, Canada, and particularly Canadian agriculture, with a view to developing in each member of the club the attributes of leadership, through clear thinking, logical reasoning, and public-speaking ability."

The membership of the club thus far has been limited to the organizers, who are Messrs. P. H. Ashby, S. R. H. Hodgins, E. C. Hatch, W. D. Hay, A. J. Buckland, W. N. Jones, R. C. Bradford, A. W. Peterson, A. R. Jones, A. R. Milne, D. J. Sutherland, J. W. Graham and R. Thompson. The article of the constitution which deals with membership, states that "any male student in regular attendance at Macdonald College shall be eligible for membership, subject only to conditions as defined in the by-laws of the club." These by-laws are as follows:

1. Application for membership shall be made in writing, presented by a member, seconded by another member,

ARE MEN MORE VAIN THAN WOMEN?

An eminent photographer points out this difference between men and women:

"A woman's ideal of a photograph is different from a man's. Her ideal is beauty; a man's is individuality. If a woman's hand or foot is a trifle too large for symmetry, it must be placed in the background or shaded so that the figure as a whole will express grace. The result is that more care has to be taken in a woman's picture than a man's, and more retouching has to be done later."

"Don't smooth out those wrinkles," a man will say of his own picture. "It took me fifty years to get them."

"I cannot imagine a woman saying such a thing; I cannot imagine a woman being proud of the scars time has left."

"Which attitude indicates the greater vanity?"

"Well, a man as a rule wants to be taken as he is; we may be justified in inferring, therefore, that he is pretty well satisfied with himself. A woman, on the other hand, wants her picture to conform to some ideal, and we may infer, therefore, that she is not satisfied with herself as she is. As to which of these attitudes indicates the greater vanity, I leave it to you to decide."

and voted upon.

2. An every member vote shall be taken on new-member nominations, 90 per cent. constituting a favorable return.

3. There shall be active and associate members.

4. The maximum number of active members shall be eighteen.

5. Not more than seven members of the club shall come from any one class.

The fees of the club consist simply of an enrolment fee of one dollar; current expenses shall be met by an assessment of the members pro rata.

The club will meet weekly during the college session. The nature of these meetings is liable to variation; some will be in the form of "round table" discussions, at others "an" "out" speaker may present an address or paper, or it may be that any of the members will address the meeting on a topic of current interest. At the next meeting of the club, on Wednesday, February 3rd, the Tariff Taxation policy as it is in vogue will be dealt with in its various aspects, by R. C. Bradford and P. H. Ashby.

It is the intention of this club to become identified with the large organization of Canadian Clubs throughout Canada, known as the Association of Canadian Clubs. The officers of the Macdonald College Canadian Club, as elected at the first regular business meeting, on Wednesday, February 25th, are as follows:

Honorary President—Prof. H. Barton.
President—Earl C. Hatch.
Vice-President—P. H. Ashby.
Sec.-Treasurer—Walter N. Jones.

INTERMEDIATE 'A' WIN A HARD GAME

Defeat Railroad Y.M.C.A. By 23-21.

The McGill Intermediate team of Section A won a hard fought game from the Railroad Y.M.C.A., by the score of 23-21. Both teams were very evenly matched, and the outcome of the contest was in doubt till the last minute of play. The pace set by both teams was a merry one, and as a result the class of basketball displayed was a credit to every player. At times, the going became strenuous, and many free shots were declared on account of holding. McGill took advantage of seven of these, while the Railroaders profited by four.

On the attack, the McGill team was slightly superior to their opponents, but the R.R.Y. made up for this in the defence. Crain, Clark and Foss worked hard, while Little, who replaced Clark in the second period, scored two beautiful goals. Kern and Levitt played effectively, blocking many combination plays and shots. Every man on the R.R. team played hard, the defence especially. Their work was largely instrumental in holding McGill's lead down to two points.

The line-up was as follows:
McGill—Crain, Clark, Foss, Levitt, Kern, Spares, James and Little.
R.R.Y.M.C.A.—Ulley, Fugh, Nelson, Epstein, Grant, Spares, Hollingsworth.
